Apprehensive for his plan of obtaining the benefaction on that account. Believes that a wholly Republican legislature would effect a radical change in the system of education. To George Tennant, Great Ormond St.

London?
[Written from ?] Though conscious of the impropriety of making suggestions to the Committee, yet feels that the Vice-Presidency of the Society should have been recognized in some more particular manner. Notes the kindnesses rendered to him by the Dukes of Northumberland and Richmond, of Lord Romney and Mr. Marsh, in obtaining for him the sitting of the Prince of Wales. Relates how the Earl of Radnor helped him financially at the time he was robbed of such a large sum of money. Hopes that there is yet time for the Committee to arrange for a recognition other than the "common circular letter to the members of the Society and the public in general." A.L.S.
